Internship Experience

2014-2015 Research Internship, Natural Language Computing Group, Microsoft Research Asia, Beijing.

Mentor: Dr. Furu Wei

Research on relation classification algorithms with neural networks:

- Strengthening the dependency path between two entities with the attached subtrees
- Representing the augmented path as a continuous vector by a combination of CNNs and RNNs

Development of a chat system:

- Enabling two robots to talk about a microblog topic with each other
- Using various features to predict the query-response relevance while ensuring the coherence of the contents said by each robot
- Using a sentiment analysis system to assign different positions to robots

2014 Internship, Natural Language Processing Group, Baidu Inc, Beijing.

Mentor: Dr. Yajuan Lv

Development of the One-sentence News Summarization System:

- o Developing a sentence compression module by deleting clauses based on lexical, syntactic, and semantic features
- o Responsible for the sentence rerank module
